THE PROPERTY

Charming 17th-Century Character Cottage

1 North Road is a deceptively spacious and characterful home within walking distance of the Kirkby Stephen town centre.

Kirkby Stephen is only ten miles from junction 38 of the M6 motorway and is well placed for Kendal, Penrith, Appleby and the Lake District. The scenic Settle to Carlisle Railway is on the doorstep and the Coast to Coast and Lady Ann footpaths run through the town. Kirkby Stephen has highly regarded primary and grammar schools, as well as a good range of shops, restaurants & pubs, church & chapel and doctor's surgery. There is still a weekly outdoor market and an agricultural auction mart.

The property itself dates back to the 17th Century and retains many original character features including wall niches, exposed beams and a stone staircase.

1 North Road is in excellent condition and has been recently modernised by the current owners, works have included re plastering, redecoration and new flooring. They have carried out landscaping work to the garden. The cottage is in excellent condition and benefits from having modern windows, kitchen and bathroom,

The property is deceptively spacious with good accommodation over two floors. On the ground floor is an entrance porch leading through to an open plan dining kitchen and a utility room. There is a ground floor shower room, pantry and large yet cosy sitting room. Upstairs is a large family bathroom and four bedrooms, three doubles and a single.

To the rear of the property is a flagged patio leading up to a private lawn garden with mature established shrubs creating screen and privacy. There is a timber garden shed. There is also a garage to the side of the property and private driveway parking to the front of the garage.

1 North Road is a ideal family, retirement or holiday home.
